RESOLUTION WAS DEFEATED, HOWEVER

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The annual meeting of the National ansociation in Louisville appears to have been quite a "bust." The end ing an investigation into the death of the conference found minor league last week of El Paso Jimmy Wilson, conditions in no wise improved from puzilist, following his participation in the chaos that prevailed throughout a match with Otto Wenzel, of Pitishas season and which forced a num-ber of the smaller organizations to

With this hope gone there seems little to be done in their case but to close shop during the period of the war, at least.

Lacked Representation.

These little minor leagues believed with the two majors and a certain few others of higher chastification that territorial retrement was absolutely necessary for the life of minor league haveball as a whole. Infortunately they lacked proper representation on the National board to force respect for their wishes.

The voting powers of the board were largely confined to class AA and class A and class B circuits and persons prejudice, or fear, of these defeated and reform resolution.
